Even the little pig in the picture is a more agreeable companion than a man with a dirty collar or a woman who presides over a tawdry house. But nobody wants the reputation of being a pig under any circumstances.

ROUND-UPS.

Cattlemen Pleased Over the Order Extending the Time to Evacuate the Strip.

Now Above All Others is the Time to Hold on to Cattle—It Will Pay to Raise

Hogs—Horse Sales.

The news that the president had related to such an extent that he would extend the time for the cattlemen to vacate the Cherokee Strip until December 1, providing that one-half of the cattle will have been moved out by October 1, is a relief to the stock men, and there is no doubt that much good will result from it. Had all the cattle now in the Cherokee Strip and other sections of the Territory that must be vacated, been thrown on the market during this time, the market would have been overstocked with cattle, some of which would have been sold at a loss, and the cattlemen would have been left with a heavy loss. For over a month the commission men have been writing to cattlemen in Texas to load their cattle until the rush of cattle that must be put on the market was over, assuring them that there was no inducement in shiping now. This advice has to a great extent been heeded, and to it is due the slight improvement which took place in the market about two weeks ago. The extension of time to the Indian Territory cattlemen will have more good effect, it will give them more time to get their cattle in, and they can ship more at their convenience. The receipts at Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, which were not as heavy as they would have been had not this extension been given, and it is probable that in the next week will make some improvement.

Texas stockmen, however, should not be led into the market by the extension of time to the Indian Territory cattlemen. The extension of time to the Indian Territory cattlemen will have more good effect, it will give them more time to get their cattle in, and they can ship more at their convenience. The receipts at Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, which were not as heavy as they would have been had not this extension been given, and it is probable that in the next week will make some improvement.

Mr. A. J. Snyder, a prominent member of the Cherokee Strip Cattle Association, in a letter to the editor of the Kansas City Times, says:

"Mr. Editor: I have just received a letter from Mr. Hood, to the effect that the president has extended the time until December 1, but there are the conditions attached. I have myself been instrumental in causing Mr. Hood to be sent to Washington in the interests of the cattlemen. I have just received a letter from Mr. Hood, to the effect that the president has extended the time until December 1, but there are the conditions attached. I have myself been instrumental in causing Mr. Hood to be sent to Washington in the interests of the cattlemen. I have myself been instrumental in causing Mr. Hood to be sent to Washington in the interests of the cattlemen."

"In various ways. In the first place the drought this season has been very severe. At the same time we went on the Strip, now seven years ago, and our cattle are not for sale. The market is very tight. I have just received a letter from Mr. Hood, to the effect that the president has extended the time until December 1, but there are the conditions attached. I have myself been instrumental in causing Mr. Hood to be sent to Washington in the interests of the cattlemen."
